COAL MINE

And Acreage at Dola Are Purchased by Hutchinson Coal Company.

The Hutchinson Coal Company has closed a deal whereby it has taken over the holdings of the Short Line Coal Company consisting of a mine and 200 acres of coal at Dola on the Short Line railroad between Clarksburg and New Martinsville a short distance below Lumberport. The mine at Dola is a two opening operation. The Hutchinson Coal Company will put in a first class plant at that point and will bring the mine to a high stage of development. Just as soon as expedient new equipment will be installed.

BURIED AT FLATWOODS.

The body of W. G. Harper, a Baltimore and Ohio railroad brakeman, who was killed in the local railroad yards Saturday forenoon, was taken from the Warner Undertaking Company's chapel to his home at Flatwoods Sunday morning and funeral services and burial were held there Monday afternoon.

An instrument in the weather bureau at Washington records every lightning flash within 100 miles.

DEPUTIES SITTING.

Deputy Sheriff George W. Conley is collecting taxes at Wyatt today and tomorrow he will be at Dola for the same purpose, while Deputy Sheriff Clarence E. Stout is collecting at Lost Creek today and he will collect at Mt. Clare tomorrow.
